TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

We suggest and support the HKLBA to include Lee Ka Ho in the Hong Kong China squad for the year 2012, even though he is not in the squad under current Bowler Ranking System, due to the following reasons:

- 1) Lee Ka Ho is widely, if not entirely, recognized as one of the best bowlers of Hong Kong;
- 2) Lee Ka Ho has proven ability and results at the international level competition;
- 3) Lee Ka Ho is young and possesses even further room to improve into a world class bowler.

We believe the decision will only benefit the image of bowls of Hong Kong. The current system covers some but not all criteria required to success at international level. As this is a World Bowls year, it is in Hong Kong's interest to play their best bowlers. Lee Ka Ho deserves his opportunity to at least be included in the squad for the training camp in July, and therefore compete for a place for the World Bowls 2012.

Please find enclosed a list of signatories bowlers who support this for the well being of the development of bowls in Hong Kong.

Yours Sincerely,

A GROUP OF HONG KONG BOWLERS

Subject: The eligibility of Mr. Stanley Lai representing HK

To whom it may concern:

As I was learnt, the winner of each year's HKLBA national singles will represent HK for the next year's world singles champ of champ. In that way, the winner of 2011 national singles Mr. Stanley Lai should represent HK for the above event in year 2012.

However, as I visited the Tiger Bowls official website recently, it appeared that Mr. Stanley Lai has represented Zhongshan, China for the Tiger Bowls World Invitation 2011 (China Tour) and was crowned the 3rd runner-up. Mr. Lai has been representing Zhong Gang, China for the China Open 2012 as well.

Enclosed please find some action photos during the Tiger Bowls World Invitation 2011 for your reference.

Both Tiger Bowls World Invitation and China Open were world bowls sanctioned event. The act of Mr. Lai was violating the World Bowls Regulations - clause 9.11 if Mr. Lai represents HK for the world singles champ of champ. To be fair for all participants for the National Singles 2011, the 1st runner up players should replace Mr. Lai's position for this world singles champ of champ event.

Finally, Mr. Lai also attained a position in the HK squad for the year 2012-13, which means he could be chosen to represent Hong Kong in an international competitions within this year. With the background of Mr. Lai representing China before for the above event, that is not fair for the HK squad players and the players who just missed out the squad.
